Policy on Sexual Conduct

In all disciplinary procedures Baylor University will seek to be redemptive in the lives of the individuals involved and to witness to the high moral standards of the Christian faith. The University's policy on this matter, and the application of the policy, can be viewed in its entirety at: https://www.baylor.edu/content/services/document.php?id=39247 under the section titled "University Grievances" and the sub section titled "Staff Grievances." This policy applies to students, faculty, staff, and administration.
