Polices Related to Employment with Baylor

Policy Updates

New: Policy on Baylor University-Sponsored Academic Journals

Baylor University Personnel Policies (the policies in the 700 series apply exclusively to faculty, but there are many general policies listed that apply to faculty and staff)

- BU-PP 701 - Academic Freedom
- BU-PP 704 - Tenure Policy
- Tenure Procedures
- BU-PP 716 - Policy on Lecturers and Senior Lecturers
- Lecturer Procedures
- Policy on Personal Conduct
- Sex Discrimination, Sexual Violence, and Sexual Harassment Policy (also known as the Title IX Policy)
- University Grievance Policy

Policies Related to Teaching
Registration and Record-Keeping

- Adding/Dropping a Course
- Attendance Policy
- FERPA/Handling Student Records

Office Hours, Exams, and Grading Policies

- Office Hours
- Student Course Evaluations
- Final Exam Policy
- Delayed Examinations
- Grading Policies

Honor Code and Academic Appeals

- Honor Code
- Honor Code Reporting Form (requires log-in)
- Academic Appeals

Handling Disruptive Students

- Policy on Classroom Conduct
- Policy on Threat or Harm to Self or Others
- Other Student Policies and Procedures might also be useful

Policies Related to Research

- BU-PP 700 - Conflict of Interest
- BU-PP 039 - Usage of Copyright Materials
- BU-PP 721 - Intellectual Property Policy
- Policy on Baylor University-Sponsored Academic Journals
- Policy on Misconduct in Research
- Policies related to various research committees (e.g., the IRB), sponsored programs, technology transfer and more may be found on the Vice Provost for Research website.