2019-2020 Tuition Equalization Grant (TEG) Hardship Appeal

The State of Texas allows that in the event of a hardship or for other good cause, universities may allow an otherwise eligible student to receive a TEG while enrolled less than full time or if the student’s grade point average, number of hours earned or completion rate falls below the satisfactory academic progress requirements set by the State. Such conditions may include, but are not limited to:

- a showing of a severe illness or other debilitating condition that may affect your academic performance
- an indication that you are responsible for the care of a sick, injured or needy person and that the provision of care may have affected your academic performance
- your need to complete fewer than 12 hours in a given term in order to complete your degree, in which case the award amount will be determined on a pro rata basis for a full-time award

Note: The financial aid committee’s decisions are final and cannot be appealed. Please email completed/signed forms to scholarships@baylor.edu and allow 2-3 business days for processing.
