

The Department of Psychology and Social Work at Grove City College invites applications for the position of Assistant or Associate Professor of Social Work to teach in a new and developing BSW program. Our program is currently in candidacy for accreditation and we seek an individual who can join our Program Director in constructing a strong and viable social work program. This a full-time position, beginning in August, 2018.

The Department is looking for a candidate who can teach a range of foundational courses such as Introduction to Social Work and Generalist Practice I and II, and can supervise the field education component of our program. The successful candidate must have a proven commitment to teaching excellence and student advising. We additionally seek a candidate with strong interest in involving undergraduate students in social science research.

A MSW from a CSWE-accredited program and five years of post-MSW practice experience is minimally required, although preference will be given to candidates with undergraduate teaching experience who hold a PhD in Social Work. The candidate must demonstrate a personal commitment to the Christian faith and a desire to integrate faith into all aspects of their teaching.

Please send a current curriculum vitae, names of four references (three professional and one pastoral), copies of transcripts, and a letter of interest that includes an explanation of how your Christian faith represents a strong fit with Grove City College's unique mission as a Christian college to: Ms. Jamie N. Christy, Assistant Director of Human Resources at employment@gcc.edu. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications.

Grove City College is a private educational institution noted for its academic excellence where scholarship is informed by Christian principles.
