Registration Information

Agency Name Texas A&M Psychiatry & Behavioral Health Clinic Clinical Social Work Fellowship The Social Work Post Graduate Fellowship Program provides a 1 - 2 year post-masters graduate training with extensive clinical experience, supervision, and educational opportunities in clinical social work while working towards independent licensure. Fellowship Term: Our postgraduate training program is generally a two-year program. Appointments are made initially for one year, with a second year re-appointment being at the discretion of the Department, and Fellow of interest. Appointments generally span from September 1st to August 31st. There may be opportunities for a more flexible start time. Time Commitment: Approximately 40 hours/week Expectations of Fellows: -Develop a personal program of self-directed study and professional growth with guidance from the teaching staff -Teach and supervise other Fellows, interns, and students as assigned or required -Adhere to the established practices, procedures, and policies of the institution as well as published ethical and service standards of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) - Participate in outpatient interdisciplinary teams and in the social work programs offered through the Texas A&M University and community partners -Maintain Texas state licensure as an LMSW and adhere to state licensing laws and regulations -Conduct psychiatric evaluations and provide evidence-based psychosocial treatments for adult and child/adolescent outpatients - Participate in additional training seminars and individualized educational experiences and research Job Location Bryan/College Station, TX
The Social Work Post Graduate Fellowship Program provides a 1 - 2 year post-masters graduate training with extensive clinical experience, supervision, and educational opportunities in clinical social work while working towards independent licensure. Fellowship Term: Our postgraduate training program is generally a two-year program. Appointments are made initially for one year, with a second year re-appointment being at the discretion of the Department, and Fellow of interest. Appointments generally span from September 1st to August 31st. There may be opportunities for a more flexible start time. Time Commitment: Approximately 40 hours/week Expectations of Fellows: -Develop a personal program of self-directed study and professional growth with guidance from the teaching staff -Teach and supervise other Fellows, interns, and students as assigned or required -Adhere to the established practices, procedures, and policies of the institution as well as published ethical and service standards of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) - Participate in outpatient interdisciplinary teams and in the social work programs offered through the Texas A&M University and community partners -Maintain Texas state licensure as an LMSW and adhere to state licensing laws and regulations -Conduct psychiatric evaluations and provide evidence-based psychosocial treatments for adult and child/adolescent outpatients - Participate in additional training seminars and individualized educational experiences and research	Order No.	3941600
The Social Work Post Graduate Fellowship Program provides a 1-2 year post-masters graduate training with extensive clinical experience, supervision, and educational opportunities in clinical social work while working towards independent licensure. Fellowship Term: Our postgraduate training program is generally a two-year program. Appointments are made initially for one year, with a second year re-appointment being at the discretion of the Department, and Fellow of interest. Appointments generally span from September 1st to August 31st. There may be opportunities for a more flexible start time. Time Commitment: Approximately 40 hours/week Expectations of Fellows: -Develop a personal program of self-directed study and professional growth with guidance from the teaching staff -Teach and supervise other Fellows, interns, and students as assigned or required -Adhere to the established practices, procedures, and policies of the institution as well as published ethical and service standards of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) - Participate in outpatient interdisciplinary teams and in the social work programs offered through the Texas A&M University and community partners -Maintain Texas state licensure as an LMSW and adhere to state licensing laws and regulations -Conduct psychiatric evaluations and provide evidence-based psychosocial treatments for adult and child/adolescent outpatients - Participate in additional training seminars and individualized educational experiences and research	Agency Name	Texas A&M Psychiatry & Behavioral Health Clinic
2 year post-masters graduate training with extensive clinical experience, supervision, and educational opportunities in clinical social work while working towards independent licensure. Fellowship Term: Our postgraduate training program is generally a two-year program. Appointments are made initially for one year, with a second year re-appointment being at the discretion of the Department, and Fellow of interest. Appointments generally span from September 1st to August 31st. There may be opportunities for a more flexible start time. Time Commitment: Approximately 40 hours/week Expectations of Fellows: -Develop a personal program of self-directed study and professional growth with guidance from the teaching staff -Teach and supervise other Fellows, interns, and students as assigned or required -Adhere to the established practices, procedures, and policies of the institution as well as published ethical and service standards of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) - Participate in outpatient interdisciplinary teams and in the social work programs offered through the Texas A&M University and community partners -Maintain Texas state licensure as an LMSW and adhere to state licensing laws and regulations -Conduct psychiatric evaluations and provide evidence-based psychosocial treatments for adult and child/adolescent outpatients - Participate in additional training seminars and individualized educational experiences and research	Job Title	Clinical Social Work Fellowship
Job Location Bryan/College Station, TX	(including hours and	2 year post-masters graduate training with extensive clinical experience, supervision, and educational opportunities in clinical social work while working towards independent licensure. Fellowship Term: Our postgraduate training program is generally a two-year program. Appointments are made initially for one year, with a second year re-appointment being at the discretion of the Department, and Fellow of interest. Appointments generally span from September 1st to August 31st. There may be opportunities for a more flexible start time. Time Commitment: Approximately 40 hours/week Expectations of Fellows: -Develop a personal program of self-directed study and professional growth with guidance from the teaching staff -Teach and supervise other Fellows, interns, and students as assigned or required -Adhere to the established practices, procedures, and policies of the institution as well as published ethical and service standards of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) - Participate in outpatient interdisciplinary teams and in the social work programs offered through the Texas A&M University and community partners -Maintain Texas state licensure as an LMSW and adhere to state licensing laws and regulations -Conduct psychiatric evaluations and provide evidence-based psychosocial treatments for adult and child/adolescent outpatients - Participate in additional training seminars and individualized
	Job Location	Bryan/College Station, TX

Salary Range	38k/year
Qualifications	-Completion of a Master of Social Work degree at a CSWE- accredited institution -An in-person interview during the application process -US Citizenship required -Eligible to hold an LMSW license in the state of Texas -Clinical experience during (or post) MSW fieldwork/internships
Link to application web site (if applicable)	https://medicine.tamu.edu/psychiatry/education-training/post-graduate-clinical-social-work-fellowship.html
Application Contact Name	Bradley Bogdan, LCSW-S
Phone	9794360605
Email	psychiatry@tamu.edu