Viewing and Assessing a Field Experience Binder

Viewing and Assessing a Field Experience Binder involves several unique, yet related, tasks. Understanding the layout and sections of the binder, and knowing how to access and enter information are important as you complete the binder assessment. Each of the sections listed here demonstrate how to understand the sections of the binder and complete these tasks.

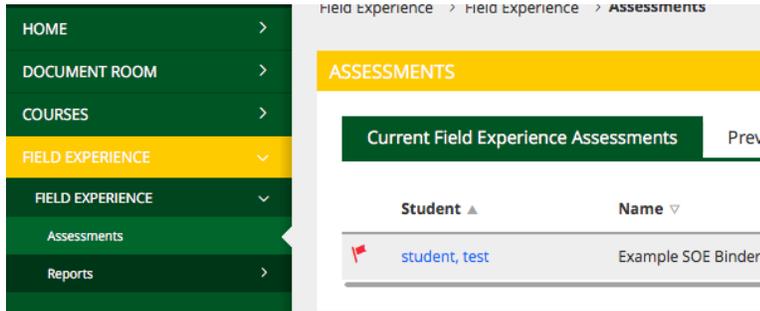

- Accessing the Field Experience Binder
- Student Section Overview
- Viewing Binder Information
- Viewing Student Submissions
- Cooperating Teacher Section Overview
- Assessing the Field Experience Binder
- Closing the Field Experience Binder

Please note that the images and scenarios presented in this document are an example. Screen shots, forms, and other elements of your student's binder may be different.

Also, please keep in mind that Tk20 recommends that you DO NOT use the Back button of your web browser while navigating a Field Experience Binder. Instead, click the tabs and links provided on the pages of the binder.

Accessing the Field Experience Binder

To view a student's Field Experience Binder from within Tk20, click "FIELD EXPERIENCE" in the left menu. This will display all students that have binders available to you. In the image below, we have access to the binder of one student named "test student." Click the student's name to open the binder.

Once in the binder, you will see that the window is split into two sections:

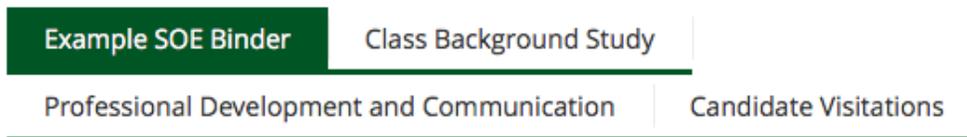

- On the left side of the page is the student's binder information and submissions
- On the right side of the page is the Assessment area and includes assessment forms. The top of this section are forms to be completed by you. The bottom of this section includes forms already completed by cooperating teachers and/or other Baylor faculty.

Student Section Overview

The left side of the Field Experience Binder contains information about the binder and student submissions. At the top of the page are tabs containing specific, grouped information. You can look at the contents of the different tabs by clicking them.

An example Student Section is shown here. Keep in mind that the binder you are viewing will differ slightly in appearance, and some of the tabs might have different names. In our example, we can see the binder information tab is selected. (This is discussed in the section “Viewing Binder Information” below.) We also see that we can view student submissions for several types of forms, including Class Background Study, Professional Development and Communication, and Candidate Visitations.

Your Baylor faculty member will provide more detail about what these forms are if you are unsure.

Viewing Binder Information

The first (top left) tab is the name of our example binder. This tab will always be labeled with the binder's name. Its contents includes general information about the binder, Due Dates for each form in each tab, as well as additional information regarding the student's placement in your class. In the image below the binder's information tab is highlighted in green and displays the binder's name, "Example SOE Binder."

Viewing Student Submissions

By clicking a tab, you can view student submissions for that group of forms. In the following image we have selected the “Professional Development and Communication” tab. We can see that the student has made one submission in this tab. Items that can be clicked and/or have a “Submitted” status have been completed. Note that this is an example, and your binder may be different.

Faculty Section Overview

The right side of the Field Experience Binder contains assessment forms and information.

The top section (shown in the following image) is the section you use to choose and complete forms. The primary focus of this section is the “Field Experience Forms” tab. (Functionality provided in the Due Dates tab is beyond the scope of these instructions, and the Feedback tab is not used at this time.) See the “Assessing the Field Experience Binder” section of this document to learn more about this important section and how to complete these forms.

In this example, the faculty member has data entered for the “SOE - Feedback on Professional Development and Communication: Feedback 1” as indicated by the Last Update column entry and there being no red flag next to its name.

The bottom section contains forms used by Cooperating Teachers and/or other Baylor faculty that are also overseeing and mentoring the student. In the image below, we can see that Cooperating Teacher named “Thom Edwards” has several forms that he may complete. We can also see that he has completed the “SOE - Feedback on Professional Development and Communication: Feedback 1” because of the date shown in the “Last Update” column. To view the form that includes the teacher’s information, click that item.

Assessing the Field Experience Binder

To assess the Field Experience Binder, forms are used to gather information and be presented to the student. These forms are listed in the “Field Experience Forms” tab in the right section of the binder. In the image below, we see this tab selected. In this tab, several forms are available to us. Forms that have not been completed are marked with a red flag and do not have a date in the “Last Update” column.

Reminder: Do not complete assessments using multiple browser windows or tabs or the browser back button to navigate as these actions may cause data inconsistencies. Complete assessments and navigate the system with only one browser window.

To open a Field Experience Form that has not been completed, click the form’s name. Then, simply complete the form as you would any web form.

When you have completed the form, click the green “Complete” button at the bottom of the form. (The “Save” button will save your work. It is not recommended, however, because it does not complete the assessment. The “Complete” button will still need to be clicked to properly complete the form and binder.)

The screenshot shows the top right corner of a web page with two buttons: a green 'Submit' button and a grey 'Close' button. Below this is a horizontal line. Underneath the line, on the right, is a blue printer icon followed by the text 'Print-Friendly View'. On the left, the text 'Student: test student' is displayed. Below that is a red warning message: 'Reminder: Do not complete assessments using multiple browser windows or tabs or the browser back button to navigate as these actions may cause data inconsistencies. Complete assessments and navigate the system with only one browser window.' Below the warning is a dark green navigation bar with three items: 'Field Experience Forms' (highlighted), 'Due Date(s)', and 'Feedback'. Below the navigation bar is the heading 'FIELD EXPERIENCE FORMS' in all caps. At the bottom, there is a table header with three columns: 'Field Experience Form', 'Description', and 'Last Update'.

Click the “Close” button to exit the binder.

You do NOT need to click the “Submit” button. The “Submit” button is for the end of the semester when all forms have been completed and you are ready to submit the entire binder. If you do click the “Submit” button, you will be met with a phrase that says, “Please complete the Field Experience Form(s).” (unless all forms have been completed). Simply click the “Close” link for that message, then click the “Close” button as shown in the image above.
