Professional Development Schools-General Information

Introduction

The teacher education program at Baylor University emphasizes interdisciplinary preparation in general education, strong content preparation in the academic majors, and professional education that is field based. Candidates in teacher education progress from Novice to Teaching Associate to Intern by demonstrating competencies in teaching situations that are increasingly complex and diverse and do so with increasing independence.

Professional education is learner centered in that the curriculum is based on meeting the needs of P-12 students in the schools. School-University partnerships help achieve the goals of both institutions by enhancing teacher preparation while focusing on improving student learning.

What are Professional Development Schools?

Professional development schools are innovative institutions formed through partnerships between educator preparation programs and P-12 schools. Their mission is professional preparation of candidates, faculty development, inquiry directed at the improvement of practice, and enhanced student learning.

Professional development schools (PDSs) are real schools, often in challenging settings, which have been redesigned and restructured to support their complex mission. PDSs support professional and student learning through the use of an inquiry- oriented approach to teaching.

PDSs have distinct characteristics. They are learning environments that support candidate and faculty development within the context of meeting each and every child's needs. PDS partners are guided by a common vision of teaching and learning, which is grounded in research and practitioner knowledge. PDS partners share responsibility for professionals and students; they blend their expertise and resources to meet their shared goals. PDS partners hold themselves accountable, and they are accountable to the public for maintaining high standards for P-12 students, candidates, faculty, and other professionals. In order to accomplish their goals, PDS partners create new roles, responsibilities, and structures; they utilize their resources differently. Finally, PDS partnerships are committed to providing equitable learning opportunities for all, and to preparing candidates and faculty to meet the needs of diverse student populations.

Professional development school partners work together over time, building relationships and commitment to their shared goals. They develop new strategies, roles, and relationships to support their work. Together, they move to institutionalize their partnerships so that it is supported and becomes a part of their institutions' expectations. At the most advanced stages of development, PDS partnerships influence policies and practices at the district, state, and national levels.

The Mission of the PDS Partnerships

The Mission of Baylor University and Professional Development School Partners is to enhance student learning through teacher quality at all levels.

BU Teacher Education Program Overview

Seven Principles

The teacher education program is based on the following seven principles:

1. Classrooms and schools must be learner-centered.
2. Formative assessment provides information about the student and assists in designing and adapting instruction.
3. A deep foundation of factual knowledge must be organized conceptually to facilitate its retrieval, application, and transfer.
4. Strategies are important in learning to solve problems and in becoming an independent, effective teacher.
5. Learning is developmental and influenced by the context.
6. Collaboration is important in creating a diverse learning community.
7. Reflection deepens the understanding of effective practices.

(Borko & Putnam, 1996; Bransford, Brown, & Cocking, 1999; Darling-Hammond, 1998; Feiman-Nenser & Remillard, 1996; Shulman, 1990)

Benchmarks

Strand 1: Instructional Design

Benchmark 1: Learner Development

The preservice teacher understands how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, cultural, emotional, and physical areas, and designs developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.

Benchmark 2: Content Knowledge

The preservice teacher understands the central concepts, methods of the discipline/content area, role of inquiry in each discipline, and the national and state standards used in the discipline he or she teaches and designs learning experiences that make these aspects of the discipline meaningful for students.

Benchmark 3: Assessment

The preservice teacher designs multiple methods of assessment to monitor student progress and engage learners in monitoring their own progress.

Benchmark 4: Planning for Instruction

The preservice teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curricula, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy.

Strand 2: Implementation of Instruction

Benchmark 5: Instructional Strategies

The preservice teacher implements varied instructional strategies that provide opportunities for all learners to develop deep understanding of content and interdisciplinary connections.

Benchmark 6: Assessment Monitoring and Adjustment

The preservice teacher implements multiple methods of assessment to formally and informally collect, analyze, and use student progress data to make needed lesson adjustments.

Strand 3: Learning Environment

Benchmark 7: Learning Environments

The preservice teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.

Strand 4: Professional Learning, Collaboration, and Communication

Benchmark 8: Collaboration, Communication, and Leadership

The preservice teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to collaborate with students, colleagues, other school professionals, parents, caregivers, and community members.

Benchmark 9: Professional Learning and Ethical Practice

The preservice teacher engages in ongoing professional learning connected to reflection and feedback and adapts practice based upon their professional growth in knowledge and skills.

Electronic Benchmark Self-Assessment (EBSA)

The Electronic Benchmark Self-Assessment (EBSA) is used by candidates as a reflective self-assessment of their mastery of the benchmarks (Appendix L). As candidates complete each semester of their field experience, EBSA forms serve as a means of self-assessing, documenting, and tracking candidates' reflections of their progress towards benchmark mastery. The EBSA also serves as an important component of the 3-way conference the completion of the Professional Practice Evaluation Form (PPEF). The completed EBSA will be utilized during the 3-way conference to guide discussions and inform final PPEF determinations.

An EBSA binder for each student is located in Tk20, and this binder contains a separate form for each of the ten benchmarks (EBSA binders are located in the Portfolios section of Tk20). Faculty will inform candidates as to which benchmark forms are to be completed during each field experience semester. Each benchmark form contains a section for each of that benchmark's characteristics, with each section containing a rubric for rating the characteristic, an area for recording evidence, and an area for self-reflective narrative.

- The Evidence area is used to provide a list of dated sources of evidence that documents the candidate's self-rating.
- The Self-Reflective Narrative section is used to provide a detailed narrative that supports the candidate's self-determined rating and aligns with the provided evidence.

Following the 3-way conference and after completion of the final PPEF by the candidate's supervisor, the candidate's supervisor will assess the EBSA. This assessment will be based on the candidate's abilities to reflect deeply and professionally regarding their self-determined progress toward mastery of each benchmark and to document those reflections in a narrative format (see EBSA Rubric on p. 105). The EBSA score will represent 10% of the candidate's final course grade each Teaching Associate.

The EBSA form in Tk20 will include all benchmarks listed for Teaching Associates and Interns, yet the directions on the form will include the following benchmark specifications:

- Interns will complete five benchmarks of their choice the first semester and the other 4 benchmarks the 2nd semester. One semester Interns will complete all nine benchmarks.
- Teaching Associates
 - Elementary Teaching Associates will complete benchmarks 1, 2, 4, 5, and 7 each semester
 - All-Level Special Education Teaching Associates will complete benchmarks 1, 2, 4, 5, and 7 each semester
 - Middle and Secondary Teaching Associates will complete benchmarks 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, and 7.

TEExES Exams

NES Pearson is the testing company for the Texas Examinations of Educator Standards (TEExES exams) and the website for information is <http://www.tx.nesinc.com/>.

Qualifying to take an Official TEExES Exam

TEA allows each teacher preparation program to determine when candidates in their respective program qualify to take a TEExES exam. The Baylor Teacher Education Faculty has established the following qualification for a Baylor teacher education candidate:

- In order for candidates to qualify to take an official TEExES exam, candidates must pass the appropriate diagnostic test(s) the PPR and content area test(s) (including the Science of Teaching Reading, STR, for EC-6 Core Subjects and 4-8 ELAR) with an overall score of 80% with an exception for elementary candidates. Elementary candidates are required to score 80% on each domain area for the Core Subjects EC-6 content diagnostic.
- A candidate who does not achieve the level required to qualify for an official TEExES exam must attend an appropriate review session prior to re-taking the diagnostic test. The Office of Professional Practice must have documentation of the candidate's attendance at an approved appropriate review session.
- Candidates must successfully complete the official PPR and Content Diagnostic TEExES tests (including the Science of Teaching Reading, STR, for EC-6 Core Subjects and 4-8 ELAR) and pass all official tests to advance to Internship, as documented by the posting of results by the testing company prior to the date of Intern Orientation.
- Supplemental GT and ESL diagnostic and official testing will take place during the first semester of Internship. All official supplemental TEExES exams must be completed by the posting of results by the testing company prior to the date of the second semester of Internship.

Teacher education candidates who need accommodations for the diagnostic and official TEExES exams must contact Lisa Osborne in the Office of Professional Practice a minimum of 30 days before the first diagnostic testing session. For accommodations during the administration of diagnostic TEExES exams, official documentation from OALA (the Office of Access and Learning Accommodation) must be received by the OPP. Accommodations will be made based on the documentation received. Candidates will be responsible for submitting the required paperwork to NES Pearson in order to receive accommodations on official TEExES exams.

Candidates register for an official TEExES exam according to the policies and procedures described on the NES Pearson website (TEExES Exam Registration) and must obtain approval from the Office of Professional Practice (MMSCI 117) prior to registering.

Limitation on TExES Exam Registrations

State-wide and local performance data indicate that candidates who take a single TExES exam on each test date are more successful than candidates who take multiple exams on a single test date. Based on this data, the Teacher Education Faculty has established a “one test per test date” policy. Exceptions may be made for GT and ESL supplemental certificate exams with approval from program coordinators.

Candidates are limited to a total of five attempts to pass an official certification examination under Texas Education Code §21.048. Candidates who reach the 5-time testing limit must apply for a test-limit waiver to retest.

For questions about registering for an official TExES test review instructions can be found on Canvas or contact Lisa_Osborne@baylor.edu in MMSCI 117 (254-710- 3190).

Criminal History Evaluations

Before participating in any field or clinical experience, students will be required to undergo school district criminal history checks.

Prior to receiving educator certification in Texas, all applicants must undergo a criminal history background check as a requirement for certification. Information regarding requirements for fingerprinting may be found on the TEA website at:
https://tea.texas.gov/Texas_Educators/Certification/Fingerprinting/

Preliminary Evaluation of Certification Eligibility

According to Texas Administrative Code (TAC) §227.101(c) A person who is enrolled or planning to enroll in a State Board of Educator Certification-approved educator preparation program or planning to take a certification examination may request a preliminary criminal history evaluation letter regarding the person’s potential ineligibility for certification due to a conviction or deferred adjudication for a felony or misdemeanor offense.

For more information about the Preliminary Criminal History Evaluation, go to the link:
<https://tea.texas.gov/texas-educators/investigations/preliminary-criminal-history-evaluation-faqs>

General Candidate Guidelines

The following guidelines apply to all teacher education candidates and are provided to facilitate professional performance in both the university classroom and the public school setting. In addition to these guidelines, there are also certificate-level specific guidelines and responsibilities that will be included in course syllabi.

1. Cell phones must be turned off while candidates are in the classrooms or attending meetings related to educational experiences.
2. Candidates should exercise extreme caution against becoming too familiar with students. It is not appropriate to date students within the district to which the Intern is assigned.
3. All social media guidelines should be followed according to district policy and Code of Ethics and Standard Practices for Texas Educators.
4. Teacher education candidates from Baylor University cannot assume responsibility for students if the assigned Clinical Instructor or Mentor Teacher is absent from the building or unavailable to supervise the candidate. A district-approved substitute must assume responsibility for the students. In the event that no district approved substitute is assigned to the classroom with the candidate, the candidate should remain on campus and contact his/her Professor of Record immediately. If the candidate is unable to reach the Professor of Record, he/she should immediately contact the Office of Professional Practice at 254-710-6153 or 254-710-3190.
5. Inappropriate conduct with sexual overtones is considered discrimination on the basis of gender can constitute unlawful discrimination in the terms, conditions, and privileges of education or employment. Such conduct is not tolerated by Baylor University or the school districts and may violate federal and state law. Inappropriate conduct with sexual overtones is defined by Baylor Policy on Civil Rights, BU-PP028, and additional district information on sexual harassment may be found on the following district websites: Waco ISD <https://pol.tasb.org/Home/Index/867> , Midway ISD <https://www.midwayisd.org/site/Default.aspx?PageID=958>, and Robinson ISD <https://pol.tasb.org/Home/Index/873>. Any individual receiving information about a suspected incident of inappropriate conduct with sexual overtones involving teacher education candidates and school district personnel must report in a timely manner to the following individuals: 1) Interim Director of Clinical Experience and 2) Campus Principal. Failure to report a suspected incident of inappropriate conduct with sexual overtones may violate federal and state law.
6. Baylor candidates will follow the Baylor calendar regarding holidays.
7. Baylor candidates may not administer corporal punishment to discipline a child (H.B. 383 Section 151.01(e) of the Family Code states that only a parent or grandparent, a stepparent, or a guardian may use corporal punishment for the reasonable discipline of a child. Under no circumstances may an Intern or Teaching Associate administer corporal punishment.)

Attendance Policy for Teaching Associate & Intern Field and Clinical Experiences

Absences

- A maximum of three appropriately documented* absences per semester will be allowed without grade penalty. Such absences will not be required to be made up.

* In order for an absence to be considered appropriately documented, the following must occur:

- No later than prior to the start of the school day, the Baylor candidate notifies both the Clinical Instructor/Mentor Teacher and the Professor of Record (University Liaison, Site Coordinator, Intern Supervisor and/or content faculty) when they are going to be absent; extenuating circumstances regarding this timeline may be considered on a case-by-case basis.
 - Within a week (7 days) of the absence, the Baylor candidate submits the Tk20 absence form and includes an indication of the reason for the absence (e.g., personal day, illness, absence due to COVID, etc.). Except for COVID-related absences, you are not expected to indicate any specifics regarding the reason for your absence.
- All absences beyond the maximum allowed OR those not appropriately documented* must be made up. Moreover, each absence after the 3-day absence maximum will result in a one-letter interval grade reduction (i.e., A to A-, A- to B+, B+ to B, etc.).
 - The certificate team that includes the University Liaison/Intern Supervisor/content faculty member will review absences beyond the maximum allowed that are due to extenuating circumstances (e.g., severe illness or injury to the TA or Intern; severe illness, injury, or death of an immediate family member, etc.) on a case-by-case basis. To be considered, the Baylor candidate must appropriately document the absence(s) and provide documentation of having received treatment from a medical professional (e.g., note from attending physician, receipt from medical professional/facility, filled prescription, etc.) or other appropriate documentation directly related to the reason for the absence(s). During the review, the certificate team will determine how the missed days will be made up and if the circumstance does or does not warrant a grade penalty.
 - During the second/last semester of the Internship, candidates may request up to two additional days for employment or graduate school interviews. These days must be requested in writing, approved by the Intern Supervisor, and communicated to your Mentor Teacher at least two school days prior to the absence. Every effort should be made by the candidate to notify the Intern Supervisor of absences for interviews as soon as the interview is scheduled
 - Absences due to official university events will be coordinated by Dr. Sandra Talbert, Interim Director of Clinical Experiences, and the certificate team.
 - Absences that result from the candidate being asked to return home to change inappropriate dress attire will count toward the three absence maximum allowance

Tardies

- A tardy is defined as arrival to any event (e.g., class, TExES diagnostic testing, field experience), 5 or more minutes after the start of the event
- Three tardies will result in the lowering of the semester grade by one-half letter (e.g., A to A-, A- to B+, B+ to B).

Attendance policy is in effect for all events related to the teaching associate or internship experience, including, but not limited to field experiences, classes, TExES diagnostic testing and review sessions, group seminars, and orientation sessions.

Additional policies and procedures regarding absences and tardies may be included in course syllabi and must be followed.

Professional Conduct

In addition to the general information in this handbook, the Baylor candidate should exhibit the behaviors of a professional educator who is committed to teaching to the individual needs of learners in the classroom and to their own personal and professional growth. All Baylor candidates should understand that professional behaviors include, but are not limited to:

- Dressing in an appropriate and professional manner that adheres to campus/district dress codes as well as specific guidelines of the Baylor School of Education including:

- treating all students, school and university personnel, and parents with respect;
- being familiar with and following all campus and district policies;
- attending all relevant meetings; and,
- maintaining a positive and professional demeanor.

*Candidates sent home due to dress code violations will be expected to change clothing to meet dress code requirements and return to their assigned campus immediately; a one half day absence will be assessed.

General Expectations

The following general expectations apply to all Baylor Teacher Education candidates. In addition to these there may be certificate/program specific expectations to which candidates are to adhere. Candidates:

- are encouraged to attend or assist with campus extra/co-curricular activities.
- are to plan and schedule observations as needed each semester.
- must complete assigned work on time in accordance with assignment expectations.

Activities may include but are not limited to observing in other classes, conferences with PDS/Partner School faculty, attending ARD meetings, etc.

Days and Hours on PDS/Partner School Campus (Interns)

1. The Office of Professional Practice is responsible for preparing the official version of the calendar for all Internships.
2. The Internship is approximately 15 weeks per semester.
3. The Intern will report to the PDS/Partner School campus for the same hours required by teachers at the campus (i.e., 8:00 am-4:00 pm, 7:30 am-3:30 pm, etc.).

Components of the Intern Experience

Observing

Much of the first week of the Intern experience will be spent observing the classroom environment, instructional techniques, and interpersonal communication and relationships. As the Intern observes, it will be helpful to take notes for the purpose of asking questions of the Mentor Teacher regarding reasons for interactions and instructional methods. Frequently asking questions of “why” and “how” will provide the Intern with a knowledge base for choosing methods for both instruction and management. During this period of time it will also be helpful to make seating charts. Learning the names of the students is an important step for quickly building relationships and rapport in the classroom.

Assisting

After a short period of time observing, the Intern will be ready to become more involved with the students. The Mentor may give specific suggestions for activities that will help the Intern become more involved. For example:

- Monitor students' work at their desks to give one-to-one assistance
- Distribute papers or materials
- Grade papers
- Check attendance
- Assist with end-of-the-day routines
- Assist students with make-up work

Co-teaching

In co-teaching, candidates are provided with modeling, coaching, and feedback as they develop teaching competencies. Co-teaching allows Mentors to model good teaching and work collaboratively with candidates, helping them understand the complexities of the teaching profession. When co-teaching, Mentors remain in the classroom. This sustained contact with candidates allows for immediate feedback and continuous mentoring.

- One Teach, One Observe
- One Teach, One Assist
- Parallel Teaching
- Supplemental Teaching
- Alternative Teaching
- Station Teaching
- Team Teaching

Co-Teaching allows the Intern to gain some initial experience as a teacher in front of the class with support from the Mentor. It also allows the students to observe the cooperative relationship between the Intern and the Mentor Teacher. Cooperation should be made evident regarding both classroom and instructional management systems.

Teaching

After observing the Mentor model the preparation and teaching of lesson plans in the subject area(s) within the classroom, the Intern will be able to assume the responsibility for planning and teaching a single lesson in a single subject (or period). This lesson plan will be written and submitted to the Mentor Teacher and Intern Supervisor prior to teaching in order to provide the candidate with constructive feedback for revisions and ultimate success.

Lead Teach*

A gradual build-up of teaching responsibility transitions the Intern to the lead teaching responsibility. This means that for five weeks during the first semester of the Internship and four weeks during the second semester of the Internship the Intern has the full responsibility of leading the planning for and teaching the whole school day as if they were the regular classroom teacher. One semester Interns have the full responsibility of leading the planning for and teaching the whole school day as if they were the regular classroom teacher for five weeks. Co-teaching with the Mentor is a viable option for the Intern during the lead teaching experience; however, the Intern should totally lead the planning and implementation of the lessons. The Intern will assume all other responsibilities that the teacher has during this time. Upon completion of the lead- teaching assignment, all Interns will be expected to continue teaching, co-teaching, and assisting in their assigned classrooms. Candidates are expected to continue to teach at least half the day (three class periods at high school) after the lead teaching period.

* Please note: If an Intern is:

- Seeking the Dual GT/EC-6 certificate they will follow the requirements on page 42; or
- Participating in a teaching abroad or private school experience during the fall semester, he/she may work with the Intern Supervisor and Mentor Teacher to arrange the lead teaching schedule so that he/she completes four weeks of lead teaching during the fall semester and four weeks of lead teaching during the spring semester.

STAAR

Teaching Associates and Interns will be informed of their responsibilities on these dates by either their University Liaison (for Teaching Associates) or their Intern Supervisor.

Intern Seminars

1. The Intern is required to attend a regularly scheduled two-hour seminar each week. Seminar content will address PPR topics, campus-specific topics, and other topics as needed.
2. All Interns will participate in common seminars scheduled by the Office of Professional Practice. Dates and topics for these common seminars are included in the Intern calendar.
3. Interns seeking GT certification will attend weekly seminars facilitated by their assigned Intern Supervisors who will be faculty certified in both EC-6 Core Subjects and GT education.
4. BU faculty who coordinate EC-12 PE, Special Education, ESL, or GT certificates will communicate schedules of seminars and special events before the semester begins with the University Liaisons and the Site-Based Coordinators on the Interns' assigned campuses. Throughout the year, any changes in this schedule will be communicated in a timely manner.

Supplemental/Dual Certificate Requirements

Glossary

Assessments – the techniques to analyze candidate and student accomplishments against specific goals and criteria including paper-pencil tests, exhibits, interviews, surveys, and observations. Good assessment requires a balance of techniques because each technique is limited and prone to error.

Candidates – individuals admitted to or enrolled in programs for the initial or advanced preparation of teachers and other professional educators.

Clinical Practice – candidates' intensive, long-term school experience in a PDS. Cohorts of candidates are immersed in the learning community and are provided opportunities to develop and demonstrate competence in the instructional and school-based professional roles for which they are preparing. Mentoring and supervision are provided to candidates collaboratively by university and school faculty.

Co-teaching – two teachers working together with groups of students – sharing the planning, organization, delivery, and assessment of instruction, as well as the physical space. Copyright 2015, The Academy for Co-Teaching and Collaboration at St. Cloud State University & TWH Consulting.

Dispositions – the values, commitments, and professional ethics that influence practices and behaviors toward students, families, colleagues, and communities and affect student learning, motivation, and development, as well as the educator's own professional growth. Dispositions are guided by knowledge bases, beliefs, and attitudes related to values such as caring, fairness, honesty, responsibility, and social justice. For example, they might include a belief that all students can learn, a vision of high and challenging standards, or a commitment to a safe and supportive learning environment.

Field experiences occur in off-campus settings such as schools, community centers, museums, or homeless shelters, as well as in PDS and Partner Schools.

Inquiry – the collaboration of PDS partners engaging in examining and assessing their practices and the outcomes achieved by studying phenomena directly related to the teaching/learning process; PDS partners and candidates monitor their own work in order to improve their performance. Participants raise specific questions, seek to answer them systematically, use their findings to inform practice, and relate their findings to others. PDS inquiry supports change at the individual, the classroom, and the institutional level. The Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), is a project of the Council of the Chief State School Officers (CCSSO) that has developed model performance-based standards and assessments for the licensure of teachers. The criteria are knowledge bases, empirical research, disciplined inquiry, informed theory, and the wisdom of practice undergirds the practice in a professional development school partnership.

Multiple School PDS Partnership – a PDS partnership in which more than one P–12 school participates. The partnership exists among all the PDSs and a professional education unit. All members of a multiple school PDS Partnership share goals, policies, and expectations for outcomes. Together they form a learning community, collaborate among the multiple sites, have common mechanisms for accountability and quality assurance, and are committed to diversity and equity. The multiple school PDS partnership has developed roles, structures, and resources appropriate to its mission. Sites in a multiple school PDS partnership are engaged in common PDS work.
