Monday Healthy Tip from Monday Campaigns

February is American Heart Month and we're highlighting some of the effects of physical activity on your heart. Making a plan to become more active has several benefits to your health. It can reduce stress, build muscles, and increase your endurance. Walking is something many of us do every day, several times a day. When it's done for more than 30 minutes a day, it can be great exercise for people at almost any level of fitness. It also provides a great workout for your heart! It's the first Monday of American Heart Month, so find some time to walk today! Click here for more information.

TUESDAY

Dr Pepper Hour

Tuesday, February 13, 3 p.m., in the SUB (Bill Daniel Student Center). Sundown Sessions is sponsoring this week's DP Hour. Come get a color changing cup, a GREEN float, AND maybe.... EDIBLE GLITTER! If you aren't sure what Sundown Sessions are, come check us out. We know you won't be disappointed!

Tuesday Talks: Your LinkedIn Profile and More

Tuesday, February 13, 5-6 p.m., in Marrs McLean Science Building, Room 301. Hosted/sponsored by the Office of Career & Professional Development. Learn how to create and manage your LinkedIn profile, and how to use LinkedIn to make connections and find a job/internship. There will be giveaways and pizza after the workshop. For additional information, click here or contact Carolyn_Muska@baylor.edu.
