November 19, 2018 - Happy Thanksgiving!

Top Stories

- The Death of the Fitness Industry
- Baylor University Presents Symphonic Band and Choral Groups
- Science of Music: Percussion Symposium: Beat and Brain Activity with Music and Rhythm
- When shopping:
  - Moody/Jones Libraries
  - Bill Daniel Student Center (SUB)
  - Baylor Health Center and Pharmacy
  - County Courthouse.

Other Events

- Moody Starbucks

For the Home/Apartment:

- Your Vehicle:
  - Do not leave your purse, wallet, or cellular telephone in plain view unattended in your vehicle.
  - Carry only the credit cards you need and avoid carrying large amounts of cash.
  - When storing items purchased at the stores, place them out of sight.
  - Make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Do not leave your keys in your car unattended between loads.
  - Properly secure your bicycles to a bike rack using a U-lock.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Always lock doors and windows when you leave your house or apartment, even for a short time.
  - Lock your vehicle and make sure your windows are always up even while you are in your vehicle.
  - Keep your head up and walk with confidence.
  - Avoid being pre-occupied while walking to your vehicle.
  - Drive defensively. Traffic is heavier during the holidays. Drivers may also have been drinking or using alcohol.