Train your mind. The mind is the first thing to stop you from pushing yourself in life. The URSA Scholars Week is a yearly undergraduate research event that takes place on Saturday, February 22, 9 a.m.-2 p.m. The event is FREE with continental breakfast at 8:30 a.m.; lunch provided. The event is hosted/sponsored by Multicultural Affairs and Women & Men’s Athletics. If you are interested in exploring interfaith work and a world-view that values understanding, contact Margaret_Wooddy@baylor.edu and learn about the Interfaith Regional Gathering with Lilly_Ettinger@baylor.edu.

Are you interested in getting involved in Student Government? Are you interested in an exciting chance to make a difference at Baylor, while also gaining valuable skills for life? Campus Programs is recruiting for Welcome Week Leader Applications and Open House Ambassador applications.

WELCOME WEEK LEADER APPLICATIONS

Week of Welcome at Baylor is a great opportunity for students to meet new faces and learn about Baylor! Students will get the chance to network, have fun, and learn about programs and resources on campus. Welcome Week Leader Applications are currently open. Welcome Week leaders will work with Welcome Week staff to run a week of fun and meaningful events that promote a strong sense of community at Baylor. This is a great chance to be involved on campus and make a difference. Leaders will be selected based on their campus involvement and leadership opportunities. Deadline: February 28, 2020.

OPEN HOUSE AMBASSADOR APPLICATIONS

Are you interested in having the opportunity to call yourself an Ambassador and join an elite group of student leaders, both domestic and international, who help new incoming international students feel a part of the Baylor family? Open House Ambassadors will be assigned a specific arm of Open House and are tasked with assisting prospective students and their families on campus. Ambassadors must have completed one year at Baylor University. Deadline: February 28, 2020.

Connect to campus events, orgs, and keep up with many of the events and traditions on campus! Click here or contact K_Stevens@baylor.edu.

WHAT'S NEXT
