Baylor Wellness - FitWell Tip of the Week

Chair yoga! Yes, I said chair yoga. When your legs are cramped in the office or class, try crossing your ankle over your knee (one leg at a time) while sitting to give your hips a break. You can even add in a stretch by extending your legs and reaching for your toes. Even while seated, we can still find a way to move. For additional information, click here or contact K_Stevens@baylor.edu.
