them to Baylor freshmen at Baylor, check out our journey through the summer to keep your career goals on target.

For upperclassmen: The Career Center continues hosting virtual events overall well-being. Click Counseling Center's website to learn more about how stress can effect your health.

The Counseling Center at Baylor University has gathered resources to Coping with Stress

• Thank your professor again for helping you learn!
• Follow the advice, guidance and recommendations of your professor.
• Don't be shy.
• Introduce yourself, say what class you are in, and what you would like to recommend of your professor.
• Don't be shy.
• Thank the professor for meeting with you.
• Be on time.
• Dress appropriately—not sloppy or disheveled—whether meeting in-
• Prepare a list of questions to ask or items to discuss with your professor.
• Gather all course materials like quizzes, exams, papers, or essays for the meeting. Have all your material ready for referral

Tips for a Helpful Meeting with your Professor:

When College Reading is Difficult

methods are not enough. Try

When College Reading is Difficult

some of Baylor's lesser known historic traditions.

resounding ring of the McLane Carillon, click big events are just a few of the vast number of traditions and rich history bigger traditional events on campus like Diadeloso and Homecoming. Those of Baylor's time-honored traditions. You probably know about many of the

Despite this coming year being a little different due to COVID-19, over the Traditions

Learn About Lesser Known Baylor

Student Life

Undergraduate Admissions

Facebook page

Wellness Instagram channel and the best submissions will be mailed a Baylor prize wellness wearing a mask, social distancing, or hand washing and DM it to the community. Make your own one minute public service announcement take simple steps to do our part to help reduce the spread of disease in our

Baylor Wellness Video Competition

Grab your phone and get creative! When it comes to COVID-19, we can all

Undergraduate Admissions is here to help guide you on your college

 Haven to help guide you on your college

Learning to get an overview of their First Year Experience halls by clicking offer first-year students an opportunity to meet and live with other first-year

Year Communities have a strong sense of community, whether there

Undergraduate Admissions

COVID-19 Facebook Live Update with

Tuesday, July 14, 12 noon CDT

Don't miss this!