Submit your Family First Kits to thatsnew@baylor.edu. They must be submitted by Wednesday, August 26th, at 8 a.m. Email them for consideration. If you would like to see something in What's New BU, contact them for more information. The Student Health Advisory Council is opening up applications to those interested in joining.

The Baylor Respiratory Clinic is located in the North Village Community Center and is devoted to caring for students with respiratory concerns, including COVID-19. The Health Center staff member will provide guidance on next steps for your care including monitor your symptoms and follow the instructions from your monitor your health. Take your temperature daily first thing in the morning. Don’t take your temperature late at night before going to bed.

Readily available, use hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol to wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. Avoid touching your face with unclean hands.

Shortness of breath, or other symptoms of COVID-19? Take your mask to a local non-profit to help #KeepWacoSafe. Baylor is providing students, faculty, and staff with a Family First Welcome Care Kit which will include face coverings (2), COVID-19 instructional towels, eating utensils, computers, etc.) Do not share personal items. Social distance around others indoors or when outdoors and keep about six feet six feet social distancing. Cover your mouth and nose with a cloth face covering. The cloth face covering is not a substitute for social distancing.

After Dark: Late Night Student Organization Fair

SHAC (Student Health Advisory Council) is opening up applications to those interested in joining. This council is run under the Baylor Health and Wellness Center. The event will be held at Friday, August 28, at 6 p.m. RSVP is required. Click here to attend.

Submit a Family First Welcome Care Kit

If you have items you would like to see appear in What's New BU, email them to thatsnew@baylor.edu. They must be submitted by Wednesday, August 26th, at 8 a.m. Email them for consideration. If you would like to see something in What's New BU, contact them for more information. The Student Health Advisory Council is opening up applications to those interested in joining.

All university-related communications and announcements are sent to all students via their official email address. Students are encouraged to check their email regularly. Students who no longer wish to receive these communications may opt-out of these communications by clicking the Unsubscribe link included in each email. Baylor University reserves the right to terminate accounts or access to email accounts for any reason.

Create Custom Face Covers for Your Bears of Baylor

Calling all talented students! Let Baylor make a professional video of your Make a video of yourself and your work, and send it to Baxter_Swint1@baylor.edu. Baylor is partnering with an alumni-owned business to create custom face covers for your Bears of Baylor.

Register for the BARC Naloxone Training

Baylor Alcohol Recovery Center (BARC) will be providing two free online Naloxone trainings as well as opportunities to receive free Naloxone. The first option is from 10-11:30 a.m. Monday, August 31. The second option is from 3-4:30 p.m. Monday, August 31. RSVP is required. Click here to register.

Overdose Awareness Day: Overdose Training

The Counseling Center and the Student Health Advisory Council (SHAC) will be hosting an event in honor of International Overdose Awareness Day. The event will be held at Wednesday, September 2, at 12 p.m. RSVP is required. Click here to attend.

Late Night Student Organization Fair

Meet student leaders from over 225 student organizations at this year’s Late Night Student Organization Fair. This is a great opportunity to learn more about student organizations, join student organizations, contact them for more information, and even join student organizations at this year’s Late Night Student Organization Fair.

Copyright © Baylor University  Waco, Texas 76798  1-800-229-5678. All rights reserved.