February 19, 2021

Student Organization Presidents, Advisors, and Event Hosts,

This week has been very challenging to us all in many different ways. I applaud your resilience and wish each of you well as the weekend approaches and weather outlets anticipate warmer weather conditions.

All in-person student organization meetings and events scheduled for today, Friday, February 19, are cancelled as the university holds classes by remote instruction. Beginning Saturday, February 20, all approved in-person student organization meetings and events, on and off campus, may be hosted as planned. Please note some campus building operations may be impacted due to weather-related issues, so please re-confirm space availability with the facility manager as you prepare for your meeting or event.

Additional updates will be available via the Baylor website, email, and @Baylor on Twitter. Please continue to look out for others during this season and stay safe.

Sincerely,

Matt Burchett, Ph.D.
