

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

TRUETT SEMINARY - CBF SCHOOL-DIRECTED LEADERSHIP SCHOLAR GUIDELINES

AWARD

CBF Scholarship awards $4,000 per academic year ($2,000 paid in each of the Fall and Spring semesters). These funds are additional to the Truett scholarship. A student may receive this scholarship for a maximum of two semesters.

ELIGIBILITY

This scholarship is open to students enrolled in the M.Div. and M.A.C.M. programs for one academic year (to include fall and spring semesters). Preference may be given to applicants within the M.Div. program.

Preference will be given to current students who have earned a minimum of 16 seminary hours at Truett

OR

who have earned a minimum of 9 hours at Truett AND transferred at least 9 hours from a college or seminary prior to attending Truett.

COURSELOAD REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must be fulltime students (minimum course load of 9 hours) for each of the fall and spring semesters in the year for which they are applying.

SPECIAL NOTE: Scholarship award nominations are at the discretion of the Truett scholarship committee. Final scholarship awards are at the discretion of CBF, as are decisions regarding invitation to CBF assembly.

CBF School-Directed Leadership Scholarship 2019-20 Application Instructions

The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship will award scholarships to Baptist students currently enrolled in one of the fourteen CBF Consortium of Theological Schools. The administration of the involved schools will recommend scholars for the School-Directed Scholarship based on the application of the students and the belief that the students selected represent the best possible potential local ministry leaders for the mission and the ministry of CBF.

Students selected for the CBF School-Directed Leadership Scholarship should meet the following qualifications:

- Demonstrate a deep commitment and ongoing relationship with Christ,
- Clearly identify with CBF or espouse core values of CBF,
- Demonstrate actions and activities that complement the mission and purpose of CBF,
- Demonstrate a desire to pursue high quality scholarship,
- Show leadership potential within CBF missions and ministry, and
- Be actively pursuing training for ministry that complements the mission and purpose of CBF.

Students who receive the CBF School-Directed Leadership Scholarship are expected to:

- Pursue a M.Div. degree full-time each semester while funded (funds are provided $2000 for Fall semester and $2000 for Spring semester and are not available for summer or interim period coursework);
- Attend CBF's General Assembly on June 19-21, 2019, in Birmingham, Alabama (or other nationally sponsored event if approved in advance – i.e., ChurchWorks, Advocacy in Action, SelahVie) – up to $1000 is provided as a travel stipend;
- Represent CBF on campus and in local churches;
- Assist in planning and organization of CBF Day on campus with CBF staff members;
- Submit two blogs highlighting your experiences within the context of your ministry or educational setting; and
- Become involved in state and regional CBF organizations as appropriate.
