COURSES TAUGHT

Introduction to Christian Scriptures · THEO 7340 · Truett Seminary

An introduction to the Christian Scriptures with an emphasis on the background, historical setting, literary critical methodology, and the interrelationship between the testaments. This course provides the student with an understanding of the basic issues necessary for in-depth analysis of the biblical text.

Christian Scriptures 3 · THEO 7371 · Truett Seminary

In-depth analysis of the literary issues, meaning and message of the text of the New Testament, from Matthew through the Acts of the Apostles.

Capstone: Call, Confession, and Context · THEO 7388 · Truett Seminary

An integrative study and application of call, confession, and context for the life of the minister as he or she anticipates service and witness.

Integrative Seminar: Faith and Practice · PRTN 7391 · Truett Seminary

This course integrates the student's biblical, theological, and ministerial knowledge within the praxis and context of ministry. Attention is given to calling, theological reflection, the church, and sustainability in ministry.

Studies in Missions · THEO 7V85 and/or Biblical & Theological Themes of Witness · WOCW 7380. This class will provide Truett student with the opportunity to study key passages from Scripture alongside Zambian students and then explore together practical application of scriptural lessons and principles within an emerging Christian context. The hope is that through such a process students and professors alike will become more faithful witnesses of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Christian Scriptures · REL 1310 · Baylor Religion Department
Introduces the Old and New Testaments (their contents, historical backgrounds, and major themes) and strategies for interpreting the Bible.

Introduction to the New Testament · REL 1311 · Baylor Religion Department
Introduces the New Testament (its contents, historical backgrounds, and major themes) and strategies for its interpretation.

The Life and Teachings of Jesus · REL 3311 · Baylor Religion Department
An intensive study of the personality, life, and teachings of Jesus.

The Johannine Literature · REL 3312 · Baylor Religion Department
A study of the Johannine Literature with special attention to the historical setting, literary design, theological themes, and interpretations of the Gospel and Epistles.

World Cultures 1: Roots of Culture · BIC 1314 · Baylor Interdisciplinary Core
Embraces the time period from the dawn of civilizations to 500 C.E. Seeks to widen views of our own culture by studying selected early civilizations.

The Biblical Heritage and Contemporary Ethical Issues · BIC 3358 · Baylor Interdisciplinary Core
Introduces the Old and New Testaments (their contents, historical backgrounds, and major themes) and strategies for interpreting the Bible. Also, draws attention to biblical perspectives on selected ethical issues as a way of bridging the gap between the literary/cultural settings of the Bible and contemporary settings.
